Description	It has been over 30 years since founder Donna Altieri originated the backpack style gig bag for musical instruments. Since that time, our range of bags and covers has grown to serve a variety of musician's needs. At Altieri, we continue to make Gig Bags and Case Covers combining durable materials, exquisite craftsmanship, and well considered design. We take pride in our Rocky Mountain origins as we continue crafting our bags in Denver, Colorado USA.
