Description	The Elemental Theatre Company promotes theatre in its purest form. We are dedicated to promoting and developing performance arts while embracing diversity. We are focused on promoting and developing interest and culture in the performance arts. Our goal is to produce high-quality plays, musicals, dramas, comedies, shows, and exhibitions. We believe that the performance arts are better served by providing quality entertainment not only to the general public, but to underserved areas with inclusive performers and staff. We strive to represent diverse genders, ethnicities, ages, sexual orientations, physical limitations, and other characteristics of our communities.
